ABOUT SP LOHIA FOUNDATION (SPLF)

SP Lohia Foundation (SPLF) is a UK-registered international charitable trust. Led by Mrs. Aarti Lohia, SPLF supports initiatives in the UK and globally across education, health, arts and culture, and sports to improve lives and create opportunities for growth.

Working with trusted partner organizations, the foundation support programmes that enhance community well-being, fostering inclusive and sustainable social progress.

PREAMBLE

- This fund encourages and supports Indorama Corporation employees in their commitment to social service and volunteer work.
- The term SEVA from Sanskrit, means “selfless service”. Applicants must actively contribute, investing their time and resources alongside SPLF support.
- The Seva grant amount is open to all Indorama employees. This grant may serve as seed capital for a new initiative or to sustain an existing grassroots project.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Project should:

- Aim to bring a sustainable change in the lives of the unprivileged.
- Be unbiased and impact-driven, not just a PR tool.
- Benefit vulnerable populations—the poor, minorities, children, elderly and disabled.
- Have clear goals and measurable outcomes.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Project must:

- Be implemented with experienced partners (eligible of receiving funds from the UK).
- Provide post-project benefits that endure.
- Involve stakeholders, especially beneficiaries, in both planning and execution.
- Ideally, be located close to Indorama sites to facilitate employee can engagement.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- The SEVA Grant is open to Indorama employees worldwide.
- To apply, please visit this link and fill in your application by 8 May 2026.
- The Seva Grant 2026 appointed jury will announce the grant recipients in September 2026
